American Momentum Bank ("AMB"), as successor by merger to Security Bank, and a secured creditor and party-in-interest in this proceeding, hereby files this Motion Pursuant to 11

U.S.C. § 362 for Entry of an Order for Relief from the Automatic Stay (the “Motion”). In support of this Motion, AMB respectfully states as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. AMB, as successor in title by merger to Security Bank, seeks relief from the automatic stay to foreclose on its collateral, including but not limited to, (i) funds in the Debtor’s deposit accounts ending in 810 and 593, which originated with Security Bank (the “Bank Accounts”), and (ii) all interests arising out of certain Deeds of Trust (as defined below). Any and all monies located in the Bank Accounts are revenues and proceeds derived from (i) oil and gas sales, (ii) accounts receivable from joint interest owners (non-operators) under the Debtor’s mortgaged properties, or (iii) general accounts receivables from any source. AMB possesses a valid and enforceable first priority lien on all funds held in the Bank Accounts, and seeks relief from the automatic stay to foreclose on such collateral and pursue all remedies under applicable nonbankruptcy law.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. The Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

3. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

III. BACKGROUND

4. On or about February 15, 2018, Halite Properties LLC (“Halite”) and Security Bank entered into that certain Term Promissory Note in the aggregate principal amount of $1,000,000 dated January 28, 2018 (the “Halite Promissory Note”). That same date, the Debtor executed an Unlimited Guaranty to guaranty Halite’s obligations under the Halite Promissory Note in favor of Security Bank (the “Guaranty”). In addition, Zircon Properties LLC and

Security Bank executed that certain General Security Agreement on February 15, 2018 (the “Security Agreement”) in order to secure the indebtedness owed to Security Bank pursuant to the Halite Promissory Note and Guaranty (together, along with the Security Agreement, the “Loan Documents”).<sup>1</sup>

5. The Debtor and Halite likewise executed certain Deeds of Trust, Mortgage, Security Agreements, Assignment of Production and Financing Statements dated January 29, 2018, in favor of Security Bank as additional security for the indebtedness under the Loan Documents (the “Deeds of Trust”).<sup>2</sup> The Deeds of Trust pledge certain oil and gas leases, interests, land and other properties (the “Mortgaged Properties”) as well as as-extracted collateral including, but not limited to all of the Debtor’s leasehold, working, operating and overriding royalty interests located in Andrews County, Texas; Callahan County, Texas; Cochran County, Texas; Gaines County, Texas; Martin County, Texas; and Lea County, New Mexico. The Deeds of Trust are accompanied by UCC-1 Financing Statements that were filed with the Secretary of State of Texas and recorded in the real estate records of each county.

6. Pursuant to the Loan Documents and Deeds of Trust, the Debtor pledged certain collateral (the “Collateral”) to Security Bank to secure the Debtor’s indebtedness under the Loan Documents, including but not limited to:

- all of the Debtor’s and Halite’s oil and gas properties in each named county notwithstanding the descriptions contained in the Exhibit “A” to the Deed of Trust;
- all accounts receivable including revenue derived from joint interest billings and operating agreements in the Mortgaged Properties;
- all of the Debtor’s and Halite’s Accounts (including accounts receivable, contracts, contract rights), Deposit Accounts and all proceeds of the foregoing (without limitation to a specific real property);

<sup>2</sup> True and correct copies of the Deeds of Trust and UCC-1 Financing Statements are attached hereto as Exhibit B.

- “Collateral” defined in the UCC-1 Financing Statements as accounts, accounts receivable and revenues derived from any and all contracts and/or operating agreements (again without limitation to a specific real property);

7. Any and all monies located in the Bank Accounts pre- and post-petition are revenues and proceeds derived from (i) oil and gas sales, (ii) accounts receivable from joint interest owners (non-operators) under the Mortgaged Properties, or (iii) general accounts receivables from any source.

8. AMB is successor in title to Security Bank by merger, effective as of February 29, 2020.<sup>3</sup>

9. AMB is in possession and/or control of the Bank Accounts for purposes of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, and has a properly perfected security interest therein. See Tex. Bus. & Com. Code §§ 9-203 (attachment of security interest), 9-313 (perfection by possession), 9-314 (perfection by control).

10. On August 31, 2020, the Debtor commenced its voluntary bankruptcy proceeding under chapter 7 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

11. On April 6, 2021, AMB filed a proof of claim asserting its secured claim against the Debtor’s estate in an amount no less than $280,526.83 (the “Secured Claim”), and an unsecured claim in the amount of $450,629.51, for an overall claim of $731,156.34.<sup>4</sup>

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

12. By this Motion, AMB seeks entry of an order: (a) granting the Motion, allowing AMB to, inter alia, pursue all remedies with respect to the Collateral; and (b) granting such relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

V. ARGUMENT

<sup>3</sup> True and correct copies of the Certificate of Merger is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

13. AMB hereby requests relief from the automatic stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362(d) to permit AMB to pursue any and all of its contractual rights and remedies that it has under the Loan Documents and Deeds of Trust, as well as any and all rights and remedies that it has under non-bankruptcy law, whether in law or in equity, in relation to the Collateral, including taking possession of the Collateral via foreclosure. AMB submits that such relief is warranted under Bankruptcy Code sections 361(d)(1) and (d)(2).

14. Bankruptcy Code section 362(d)(2) provides that, upon the request of a party in interest, a court shall grant relief from the automatic stay, such as by terminating, annulling or modifying the stay, “with respect to a stay of an act against property [protected by the automatic stay] if – (A) the debtor does not have any equity in such property; and (B) such property is not necessary to an effective reorganization.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2).

A. There is no Equity Cushion for the Estate and the Debtor is not Reorganizing

15. Here, the Debtor has no equity in the Bank Accounts, as AMB has a first priority properly perfected lien on such funds. See also First Volunteer Bank v. Ortlepp (In re Ortlepp), No. 2:18-06048, 2019 Bankr. LEXIS 1255, at *7 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. Apr. 18, 2019) (where bank had a prior perfected security interest in deposit account funds, the debtor had no equity in the collateral and bank was entitled to relief from the automatic stay).

16. With respect to Bankruptcy Code section 362(d)(2)(B), the Debtor has not shown the Collateral is necessary to an effective reorganization. This case is a case for liquidation under chapter 7, and accordingly, has no prospects of reorganization. See generally In re Porayko, No. 09 B 29262, 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 1014, at *5 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. Mar. 30, 2010).

B. AMB’s Secured Claim is not Adequately Protected

17. Bankruptcy Code section 362(d)(1) provides that, upon the request of a party in interest, a court shall grant relief from the automatic stay, such as by terminating, annulling, or modifying the stay, “for cause, including the lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest.” 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

18. Outside of specifying that “cause” includes lack of adequate protection, the Bankruptcy Code does not define “cause” or otherwise delineate the circumstances under which “cause” exists for purposes of section 362(d)(1). Therefore, courts are left to interpret its meaning on a case-by-case basis. Reitenauer v. Texas Exotic Feline Found., Inc. (In re Reitenauer), 152 F.3d 341, 343 n.4 (5th Cir. 1998).

19. Here, as a result of the Debtor’s lack of equity in the Bank Accounts, AMB lacks adequate protection of its interest in the Collateral. By virtue of its lack of protection, good cause exists to lift the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

VI. REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF BANKRUPTCY RULE 4001(d)(3) STAY OF ORDER

20. Finally, AMB requests that the Court eliminate the 14-day stay ordinarily applicable to an order for relief from the stay under the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3), and submits that cause exists for such additional relief due to the continuing risk of deterioration of the value of AMB’s interests in Collateral. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3) (“An order granting a motion for relief from an automatic stay made in accordance with Rule 4001(a)(1) is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.”).

VII. CONCLUSION

21. For the foregoing reasons, AMB respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order lifting the Debtor's automatic stay to permit AMB to foreclose on the Collateral and exercise all rights and remedies available to it under applicable nonbankruptcy law.
